

Information Centre Canadian War Cemetery (ICB) in Holten, Netherlands

The Information Centre Canadian War Cemetery (ICB) in Holten, Netherlands is planning to interview relatives (siblings, spouses, children, other relatives, friends) of deceased soldiers who are buried in Holten.

We plan to visit the interviewees at their homes in Canada.

The intention of the ICB is to get more Information about the soldiers who are buried in Holten, as well as get an impression of what the loss of a brother, father, son, friend meant for those who left behind.

ICB Holten Netherlands Interview Project relates to the province of Quebec where there are the home town places of 114 fallen soldiers. Across Canada, there were 1,394 military who have found their final resting place at the Canadian Military Cemetery at Holten.

We would like to have your cooperation in finding people, and maybe you yourself might be a good informant to interview.

Please share your thoughts and possible candidates.

Thanks for your help,

Jan Braakman

Volunteer/researcher at ICB, Holten Netherlands

For further information contact Jan Braakman at jan.braakman@gmail.com

Where did they live? <https://nl.batchgeo.com/map/whereditheylike>

This above resource is an excellent interactive map from ICB "Where did they live" also has information on other Canadian soldiers who gave the supreme sacrifice.

